Making Wishes Come True

Valerie knows that sometimes finding the perfect home seems impossible. But working as a realtor, motivational speaker and author, she has learned the art of making people's wishes come true. The Marchant Company prides itself on giving every customer a tailored home buying experience, and Valerie is no exception. She passionately believes that anyone looking for a home deserves personal service and attention, not sales. And just how Cinderella's glass slipper was a perfect fit, Valerie wants to help Greenville homebuyers find their perfect home.
